

Introduction For Richard Hight

You are in for a treat. Our speaker today is. . .

Here to help us uncover new possibilities, stimulate creativity, inspire diverse thinking styles and spark innovation.

Entrepreneur, published author, international keynote speaker, and award winning fine artist, he has been featured on ABC, NBC, CBS and FOX Networks. With a message filled with hope and possibility he is also much in demand by Fortune 500 Companies, educational groups, associations and Not-For-Profit organizations.

His paintings hang in over 60 universities, and grace numerous corporate and private collections.

When he is home, the devoted husband and father enjoys riding his unicycle around the neighborhood spending time with his two greatest masterpieces — Averie and Cole.

Every member of the Hight family enthusiastically support the Special Olympics and encourages Averie and her teammates in their competitive exploits. They also enjoy following Cole and avidly cheer him on in his golf endeavors.

All the way from Tulsa, Oklahoma, please join me in exuberant welcome to Richard Hight.

NOTE TO INTRODUCER: Please read the introduction as it is written. Do not abbreviate or edit when delivering the introduction.

